The soldier had stopped to rest by the way.

For the air was sultry with summer heat.

The road was like ashes under the feet.

And a weary distance before him lay.

As the order to charge was given the men, [the When one from the ranks seized our colors, an He, too, fell dend on the self-same spot. "A handsome boy was this last. His hair Clustered in curls round his noble brow, I can almost fancy I see him now, With the scarlet stain on his face so fair."

"What was his name? have you never heard? Where was he from, this youth who fell? And your regiment, stranger, which was it, tell!"Our regiment? It was the Twenty-third."

The color fied from the young girl's cheek, Leaving it white as the face of the dead. The mother lifted her eyes, and said: "Pity my daughter—in mercy speak!"

"I never knew aught of this zallent youth,"
The soldier answered: "not even his name,
Or from what part of our State he came.
As God is above I speak the truth!

"Bot when we buried our dead that night, I took from his breast this picture—see! It is as alike him as like can be: Hold it this way, toward the light."

One glance and a look, half sad, half wild, Passed over her face, which grew more pale, Then a passionate, hopeless, heart-broken wail And the mother bent low o'er her prostrate child.

The Braman Machine is in every respect a first class, simple, practical and relia-FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

Among the advantages it has over others, are the ollowing:

lst—The works are so arranged that the Machine an be run backward or forward, sowing equally ell either way, it can always be started with the out alone, and is always sure to be right.

3d—The needle is perfectly straight, thus enabling to work through heavy goods without trouble or anger of breaking by springing as with curved need. ones.

3d—The thread is used direct from the spools both upper and lower, thus saving the trouble of re-onting.
4th—Its simplicity and non-liability of getting out of order.

5th—The case with which it can be operated, and the durability of its work, the seam is very elastic, and cannot be ripped, although every fourth stitch is cut.

This machine will QUILT, HEM, GATHER, FELL and ENGROPER. Please send for circular. Agents wanted to whom liberal inducements will be offered. Address G. W. CROWELL & CO., Manufacturers and Dealers in Sewing Machines, No. 211, Superior St., Cleveland, Ohio. 83. GEO. ADAMS, Agent for Trumbull. Machines to be seen at Adams' Bookstore.
